

What is the SHOMAKER CLASSIC?

The Shomaker Classic, in its 14th year, is held in memory of Monte Shomaker who gave many years of service to the Carlisle area community. From the time your clubs are taken from your car, to the last bite of your expertly prepared dinner, you'll see why The Shomaker Classic is Cumberland County's premier charity golf outing.

Who is LEADERSHIP CUMBERLAND?

Mission: LEADERSHIP CUMBERLAND provides leadership development to promote community awareness, encourage personal engagement and enhance workplace vitality for individuals, businesses, and organizations throughout Cumberland County.

Vision: LEADERSHIP CUMBERLAND will be the foremost leadership development opportunity for future business and community leaders in Cumberland County.

Since 1989, the main focus of LEADERSHIP CUMBERLAND has been the 10-month, session based, leadership development program. Our goal is to positively impact the Cumberland County community and area non-profit organizations through the leadership and involvement of our program participants and alumni.

The Tournament will be a scramble limited to 96 players. Registration is on a first come, first served basis. Players may assemble their own foursomes or request individual placement. Please wear proper golf attire, which includes collared golf shirts and shorts or golf slacks. Non-metal spikes are required.
