OUR FIRST CLASS SESSIONS ARE UNDERWAY!

NOVEMBER 2021

We had our first class session this month for our Leadership Cumberland Fellows at the Cumberland County Historical Society where they had a very full day! They had an Introduction to Positive Leadership by our director Nicole Deary, went over their strengths finder results with 2021 class alum Heather Knisely, had headshots taken by Jodi Major of AFH Media, LLC, a walking historical tour by Matthew March of the Historical Society, covered nonprofit board meetings with Dr. Ivy R. Buchan, and wrapped up their day by starting their Community Engagement Projects with CommunityAid, Girl Scouts in the Heart of Pennsylvania, New Hope Ministries in Pennsylvania, Joseph T Simpson Public Library, U.S. Army Carlisle Barracks Farmhouse, and YWCA Carlisle. Thank you to our host for this class the Cumberland County Historical Society!

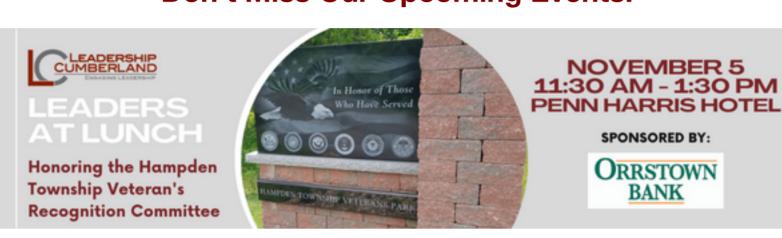

MEET OUR FELLOWS HERE!

October 6th was our first class session for Junior Leadership Cumberland! The Class of 2022 focused on their theme of Leadership where they worked to identify what attributes make a good leader and assessed their own leadership skills. Steve Riccio from Dickinson College presented Habit 1: Be Proactive and we heard from a guest speaker panel including Megan Veres of TE Connectivity, John Martin of Pillar+Aught, and Curtis Voelker of Central Penn College. The students then had a CPR/First Aid Demo from Asheleigh Forsburg with the The Peyton Walker Foundation and a spotlight from our Session Sponsor Carlisle Kiwanis Club. Finally they created their Flat Stanley in groups and wrapped up the day. Thank you to our host sponsor Frederick House in Carlisle for a great first session day!
